[22:40] <eldeadmariachi> i haven't watch Attack of the clones in a while [22:40] <neospartanhesperos9> Jango was a mandolorian hunter, he wouldn't give himself over to be cloned for an army for the jedi, unless he knew about order 66

[22:56] <pinkdam> as you've yet to give any evidence as to how offering the player a choice (to buy a loot box) is worse than denying the player a choice (to go where he may), I still say I've won any argument that's to be had on the matter @ChalupaPrince
[22:57] <chalupaprince> @Pinkdam i did and multiple people did too, can't change the opinion of a hard headed BrokeBack
[22:57] <chomchamp> good night phil

[23:02] <butter_my_bread> @pinkdam I find it funny how he can ignore the one but miss the entire point of the issue when it's so obvious and anti consumer if u look at from the players perspective. the least they can do is increase earn rates. that bs about how they wanted to blance it so it's fair for both the player with alot of money and the player with little money is warped as the progression system currently is
